Since I started my ministry here at St. Paul's we have used many different hymns in the worship services over the years. Some hymns are used more than others and some might be used only once a year. It's hard to pick one favorite hymn out of all the ones we have sung but lately I have fallen in love with the hymn 411, "I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light."

Did you know that every hymn has Scriptures references? Hymn 411 comes from 2 Corinthians 4:4-6. Verse 6 tells us: 6 For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. Jesus is the One who takes us out of the darkness and into His Light!

The hymn also references Hebrews 12:1-2 which says: Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, <sup>2</sup> looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. This is a reminder of what Jesus did to save us.

Another reference is 1 John 1:5 which says: This is the message we have heard from Him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. We know and believe that in Jesus there is no sin or anything that is evil. We can trust in Jesus with all our being.

Finally, Revelation 21:23 says: And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and its lamp is the Lamb. What a beautiful picture of heaven and the center of it being Jesus, the Light and the Lamb; He is all that we need!

Do you realize that the hymns are a message from the Word of God set to music? If you like a hymn note the Bible references at the bottom of the page and grow deeper in the Word with that hymn.

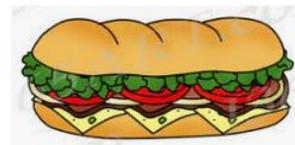

To my brothers and sisters in Christ: may we live, love, and work together as children of God in His light!

From your Stewardship Board...It's Tax Time again so don't forget about a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD).

A qualified charitable distribution (QCD) is a distribution from your individual retirement account (IRA) to a qualified charity. You must be age 70½ or older to make a qualified charitable distribution. A qualified charitable distribution is not taxed, nor is it included in your taxable income.

If certain conditions are met, QCDs also can count toward the required minimum distributions (RMDs) that people who are age 73 or older must meet each year if they have traditional IRAs (or a number of other tax advantaged retirement plans that you can't use for a QCD). Also important: You don't have to itemize on your tax return to take advantage of a QCD.

10. April 9th - Easter Festival: Long Lives the King of Kings! Psalm 146

Most Christians are aware that Jesus is the King of kings, but there is much to be explored in this aspect of Christology. The Books of Chronicles are focused on the kingdom of Judah, which is to say the House of David. Interpreters often miss that the goal of Chronicles is to illustrate, through the kings of Judah, the rule of the coming King—the Christ, who will sit on the throne of His father David forever. The goal of these sermons is to bring the kingdom of Christ into clearer focus through the lens of the good kings (mostly) of Judah as they are portrayed in the Chronicles. From this point of view, the focus is not on how we should learn righteousness from the kings of Judah, but on how each king is a shadow of the one true King, Jesus Christ. He is the fulfillment of the promise, which each king was unable to realize. Everyone is welcomed and encouraged to grow in their faith and fellowship with one another during this Lenten season!

Midweek Lenten Meals take place at 6:00pm, before the worship services.

Newsletter Article – February 2023

God in Man Made Manifest

The season of Epiphany focuses on how God was made manifest in the flesh of Jesus. The church spends time hearing of the miracles, signs, and wonders of Jesus in the world. And this made plain to all that Jesus really is who He said He was. He is the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, the only begotten Son of the Father, in the flesh. For “the Word became flesh and dwelt among us” (John 1:14).

It is revealed for all the world to see that Jesus is God in the flesh. It is made manifest by His words and His work, by what He said and by what He did. And these belong together, for “the Word became flesh and dwelt among us.” Jesus is the Word and will of God in the flesh, that is, He is the walking, talking enactment of God’s Word.

It is no different for us. We are called not just to believe in God in hearts but also to trust in God in word and deed. As James wrote: “But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves” (James 1:22), and again, “What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? ... So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. ... Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. ... For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead” (James 2:14, 17–18, 26).

Our faith is lived out in works for our neighbor. Our trust in the Word and will of God is lived out not in word only but also in deed and in truth. In other words, the Epiphany of the Lord creates in us an epiphany of our faith in our works of obedience to God who commanded them. By this, our faith is made manifest to the world. It is, as Luther wrote of faith:

Faith is a divine work in us. It changes us and makes us to be born anew of God (John 1). It kills the old Adam and makes altogether different people, in heart and spirit and mind and powers, and it brings with it the Holy Spirit.

Oh, it is a living, busy, active, mighty thing, this faith. And so it is impossible for it not to do good works incessantly. It does not ask whether there are good works to do, but before the question rises, it has already done them, and is always at the doing of them.

He who does not these works is a faithless man. He gropes and looks about after faith and good works and knows neither what faith is nor what good works are, though he talks and talks, with many words about faith and good works.

Faith is a living, daring confidence in God’s grace, so sure and certain that a man would stake his life on it a thousand times. This confidence in God’s grace and knowledge of it makes men glad and bold and happy in dealing with God and all His creatures. And this is the work of the Holy Spirit in faith. Hence a man is ready and glad, without compulsion, to do good to everyone, to serve everyone, to suffer everything, in love and praise to God, who has shown him this grace.

And thus it is impossible to separate works from faith, quite as impossible as to separate burning and shining from fire. Beware, therefore, of your own false notions and of the idle talkers, who would be wise enough to make decisions about faith and good works, and yet are the greatest fools. (Preface to the Book of Romans)

So, then, let our faith be active by God's power in the Word through the Holy Spirit. And let then our faith be made manifest to the world by what this faith does: serving our neighbor – in church, in the family, and society – with the works of faith in time, talents, and treasures.

Postings from Preschool

February is a month with a holiday devoted to love- Valentine's Day- and that reminds us all of the ultimate love our Savior Jesus showed when He died on the cross to save us. Our Bible lessons over the past month have taught us to share this love with others; the account of Jesus blessing the children, His sermon on the Mount, Zacchaeus being forgiven, and Jesus stilling the storm to save His disciples.

We also learned about good dental health in conjunction with the letter T, celebrated National Lutheran Schools Week, and made our own personal pizzas. This month we'll make some great Valentine crafts and enjoy giving Valentines to our friends. May you feel blessed by God's love every day!

OUR OFFERINGS TO THE LORD FROM HIS BLESSINGS TO US

Offerings remind us of the blessings God has given us and are an opportunity to thank Him for what He has done in our lives. Please place your offerings in our Offering Box located in front of the water fountains in the narthex of the church. You may also choose “e-tithing” by having a weekly deposit to St Paul’s from your bank account. If you have questions on e-tithing, please contact the Church Office.

END OF AMAZON SMILE

In 2013, Amazon launched AmazonSmile to make it easier for customers to support their favorite charities. However, after almost a decade, the program has not grown to create the impact that was originally hoped.

As a result, Amazon plans to wind down AmazonSmile by February 20, 2023. They will continue to pursue and invest in other areas where they could make meaningful changes— from building affordable housing to providing access to computer science education for students in underserved communities.

To help charities that have been a part of the AmazonSmile program with this transition, they are providing them with a one-time donation equivalent to three months of what they earned in 2022 through the program, and they will also be able to accrue additional donations until the program officially closes in February.

SGO DONATIONS

Please don't forget to donate to St. Paul's SGO (Scholarship Granting Organization)! This last year we disbursed almost $21,000 in scholarships to assist students with tuition in St. Paul's Lutheran School. This is a huge blessing to them and a way to minister to others!

Plus, donating to the SGO benefits you! Your donation will be given a 50% state tax credit as well as being eligible as a deductible.

For more information, contact Jennifer Harman at the school office (547-546-2790) or pick up a pamphlet from the tract rack in the narthex.

"Now Is the Day!"

Acts 17:20 - "For you bring some strange things to our ears. We wish to know therefore what these things mean."

When the apostle Paul stood on Mars' Hill surrounded by the brilliant minds of Athens, what was his message? What was his theme whenever he spoke? You should know the apostle well enough to answer, "the crucified and resurrected Christ." The writer of Acts sums it up in these words: "he was preaching Jesus and the resurrection" (Acts 17:18b).

Do not follow those mocking atheists on Mars' Hill. Ask God for the strength to remove every obstacle that will prevent you from coming to Christ. For many years, large, jutting rocks at Hell Gate in New York Harbor proved a menace to shipping. They had to be removed, so they were blasted away by dynamite. Likewise, the stone of your unbelief, still placed before the Savior's grave, must also be rolled away. If you are to escape the terrors of the real hell's gate. For the safety of your soul, and your entire Christian life, you must know, as Paul reminds us, "the power of His resurrection" (Philippians 3:10b). The Greek word he uses for "power" and the English word "dynamite" are closely related.

Another group of Paul's hearers on Mars' Hill were those who said, "We will hear you again about this" (Acts 17:32b). They postponed coming to terms with Christ. Are you one of these? You can be spiritually rich with the Easter promise, yet remain impoverished because of your hard heart. You hear the appeal for repentance and faith in Christ. The Spirit urges you to get right with your God. Nevertheless, you say, "Tomorrow! Next week! I will listen again next Sunday!" How do you know that you will? The average age of Americans today is 38 years. Many of you are 10, 20, even 30 years older. For those of you in your later years, these questions of the grave, the judgment, and eternity come with particular force.

Remember "now"—not next month or next year—"is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2b). You can spurn this grace once too often. Acts records, "So Paul went out from their midst" (Acts 17:33). Most of them may have never seen him again or heard the life-giving message he brought to them. Will this be the last Christian message you hear or read?

Still, others in the apostle's audience were those who "joined him and believed" (Acts 17:34a). There on Mars' Hill, God's Spirit touched their hearts, and they were saved. As Easter Day in the ancient church was a time when converts confessed their faith, so, too, may this coming Easter be a day of resurrection faith in the Lord Jesus Christ's triumphant victory over the grave for each one of us.

Those who came to faith in Athens many centuries ago placed their trust on the blood of Jesus Christ—the spotless Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world (see John 1:29). Let us do the same.

From "Christ Lives—and We Shall Live," a sermon excerpt from Rev. Dr. Walter A. Maier, the first Speaker of The Lutheran Hour

Reflection Questions:

1. Do you ever discuss religion with your friends as a group? How is that experience?

2. How far-fetched do you think Paul's ideas sounded to those in Athens?
3. Do you enjoy talking to others about the Christian faith and religion in general? Does the conversation get a little touchy at times?

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lententide, a 40-day penitential season as confess and return to the Lord, so that we may celebrate The Feast of the Resurrection with clean hearts. • Throughout Lent, we trace the steps of Jesus as He travels to Calvary. We see His obedience to the Father; none could turn Him aside from the cross. “Now it came to pass,, when the time had come for Him to be received up, that He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem...” Luke 9:51 NKJV We see Him cling to the Father in prayer; knowing only in remaining in His presence could He be unwavering, even in the face of great suffering. “He went a little farther and fell on His face, and prayed, saying, 'O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as You will.'” Matthew 26:39 NKJV We see His compassion for His mother, His disciples and friends, those who nailed His hands and feet, those who mocked and blasphemed. We see

His undying love for His Church, as He pours out His body and blood for her; and gives her Himself to “feast upon” for the remainder of her days: “Take, eat.... Take, drink....” • Though a solemn time in the Church Year, Lent does not include Sundays. The Lord is risen! And

Sundays remain His day. ● While we may “retrace” Jesus' steps to Calvary, He is not there; and He is not in the tomb. These are days of remembrance for all He has done to effect our eternal salvation; to wipe out our sins and guilt; to gift us with eternal life. ● Thus, we “sorrow for a moment” as we “remember the price” Jesus paid for our sins. But true joy dawned on that first Easter morning, and no one can dim the glory of our risen Lord! ●

“Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed – in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: 'Death is swallowed up in victory.' O Death, where is your sting?? O Hades, where is your victory? The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.”

I Corinthians 15:51,52,54-57 NKJV
